

PALMER INSISTS HE WILL COME BACK TO SALT LAKE

FINDINGS NOT LIKELY TO FILL THE BILL

had until very recently been determined that he should marry Miss Curtis.

Refuses to Marry to Order.

"I have been indulged in my every want by my father," said Palmer, "and I have the greatest respect for his wishes and desires in all but the selection of whom I shall marry. I believe that the framers of the constitution should have embodied this as one of the inalienable rights of American citizenship.

"Miss Curtis is a charming young lady. She is one of the best families in New York. I have the greatest respect and consideration for her, but I am frank to confess that my heart is with another so far as my matrimonial plans are concerned."

Palmer's presence in San Francisco became known when he sought to enlist in the marine corps and was refused by the recruiting officer because Palmer had told of his New York connections and his love affair.

The recruiting officer at the marine corps recruited station, 55 Market street, declined Palmer's application on the grounds that the notoriety that his enlistment might cause would be detrimental to the service.

"I don't see why the government should have refused to accept me," said Palmer. "I am 23 years old and an American citizen. However, I am glad I was turned down as I will return to Salt Lake and engage in either the musical business or seek employment in some other line."

"I came to San Francisco to meet my father. I was to meet him here last Sunday, but I was a day late in arriving. However, I received a message stating that he would be here the latter part of the week. I hope to be able to persuade him to reside from his position in regard to my marriage."

Sought Discipline of Navy.

Palmer explains that his reason for wanting to enlist in the marine service was rather whimsical, and that he thought the training and discipline he would receive would be beneficial, and it would be an end to the means of securing the hand of his Salt Lake sweetheart.

The young man is fashionably dressed, is polished, and his manner gives every indication of being used to environments begot of breeding and wealth. He states that he came west with ample funds to keep him for an extended period. He most emphatically denies the concocted story that he had called off his marriage with Miss Curtis to marry a concert hall girl or an actress.

"I have never entertained the thought of marrying beneath my family," Palmer added. "Miss Curtis's family are among the most prominent people in Utah. Her father crossed the plains with Brigham Young and entered the peaceful valley of Zion in 1847, after enduring the terrible hardships which beset those intrepid pioneer Mormons."

"I arrived in Salt Lake early last June, and had intended to remain but a few days. I visited the tabernacle, and I became interested in hearing that pipe organ and studying its full mechanism."

"I am of a musical trend. After leaving college I studied in Berlin and other cities abroad. Miss Curtis is one of the most talented musicians in Salt Lake. She has been abroad, and it was through our mutual love for music that we became acquainted and the affair developed in love."

While in Salt Lake Palmer was a guest at the leading club of that city. He says he also became acquainted with some of the leading business men and capitalists of that city, to whom he may look for assistance in securing him a position when he returns, in the event that his father is obdurate in his determination to have him marry the New York belle.

REAR BRAKEMAN BLAMED

Neglected to Close the Switch and as a Result a Burlington Train Was Wrecked at Coram, Mont.

Whitefish, Mont., Sept. 9.—The coroner's inquest which adjourned last night waiting for more witnesses, convened again this morning to continue the investigation of the cause of the wreck of Burlington train No. 44 at Coram on the morning of the seventh, and some sensational features were sprung, as it involves the train crew of an eastbound freight, No. 184, who are supposed to have used the passing track at that point previous to the arrival of the passenger.

W. J. Nielsen, the rear brakeman of the train in charge of Conductor J. C. Bailey and Engineer Hodge, was placed under arrest, as it was found that he must be the man who should have locked the switch which made the main line clear.

He made the statement on the street that he had locked the switch, but when called upon the stand confessed that instead of closing the switch himself he had left it to a bystander whom he supposed was the section foreman, who would probably close and lock it.

Further investigation disclosed the fact that at that time a handcar had been run in on the passing track by some soldiers and it is thought it was one of these men who was to close the switch for the brakeman.

Special Agent Harmon has the soldier, Walter Walker, under arrest at Kalispell. The formal charge made in the complaint is manslaughter.

WILL HONOR CHAPLAIN

Bronze Statue of Fighting Priest to Be Erected on Scene of Gettysburg Conflict.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—There will soon be received on the battlefield of Gettysburg an heroic bronze figure of the late Very Rev. William Coby, C. S. G., chaplain of the Eighty-eighth regiment, New York infantry, who was the principal figure in a dramatic incident in the famous battle.

On July 2, 1863, the Second brigade, First division, Second corps, was ordered to move to the support of the left wing of the Union army, which was then sustaining a desperate attack. Just before the brigade, which was known as the Irish brigade, took up its line of march, the priest mounted a great boulder not far from the bloody angle and, calling on the brigade to kneel and for each man to make his act of contrition, he gave to those Catholic soldiers a general absolution. The scene was witnessed by many soldiers who still survive.

The statue is being modeled in this city.

HUGHES WILL FIRST BE AN ASSOCIATE JUSTICE

Washington, Sept. 9.—If Governor Hughes is to be made chief justice of the supreme court of the United States he will be promoted from an associate justiceship. Reports that the nomination of the governor as an associate justice would be withdrawn and his name sent to the Senate as chief justice have been put to rest by arrangements that the New York executive has been making to take up his duties on the bench on the second Monday in October.

As Congress does not convene until December, the new associate justice will have at least two months to serve a subordinate position on the bench.

CHARGES EXORBITANT

California Fruit Shippers Have Grievance Against Railroads.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 9.—Before Commissioner Proulx of the interstate commerce commission, attorneys for the citrus fruit shippers of southern California began today their legal attack upon the transcontinental railroads in the matter of being shipments of fruit consigned to the long haul across the country.

The shippers contend that the railroad charge of from $60 to $75 per car for icing is exorbitant. They ask the commission to compel the transportation companies to allow them to pre-cool their own fruit and ice their own cars for shipment. They charge that the railroads do not re-cool the fruit properly before putting it in the cars and that the icing is improper, done so that the cars have to be re-iced en route to the east, thus adding to the expense of shipments.

The railroads enter a general denial and assert that they are doing the best that can be done with fruit shipments.

FRIENDS RESENT ACTION

Revolt in the Hamilton Club Over the Treatment Accorded United States Senator Lorimer.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The Hamilton club, which has prided itself on being the banner Republican club of the nation, was greatly wrought up today, following the Roosevelt-Lorimer incident yesterday. Senator Lorimer has a host of close friends in the membership of the club and from these men came rumblings of revolt. They said they were anxious to rebuke President Batten for accepting Colonel Roosevelt's ultimatum regarding the banishment of the senator. The senator's friends asserted they were only waiting the cue from Mr. Lorimer and if he resigns his membership in the club, they said they would do likewise. So far he has not given the word and has refused to talk on the subject.

Sensor Lorimer's friends, with considerable effort, maintained silence today when asked by newspapermen for interviews bearing on the situation. They then relieved themselves by expressing their personal views on the incident and everything Rooseveltian in words extremely torrid.

ASSAULTED BY A ROBBER

Captain T. D. Blom, Head of Fishing Company Tacoma, Found in Park With Throat Cut.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 9.—Captain T. D. Blom, prominent in shipping circles and head of a codfish company, was found today in a park in the heart of the city with his throat cut. He probably will die. He had closed a big fish deal yesterday, selling a schooner load of codfish to a San Francisco firm. It is believed he was attacked by a robber while on his way to the home of a friend.

Captain Blom returned from the Alaskan fishing barks last Sunday with his ship Fortune, after having had a very profitable voyage.

He was president of the Blom Codfish company with headquarters at Dockson, near Tacoma. He was 42 years old. His business associates do not believe it was a case of attempted suicide. He expected to sail for the north in a few days.

When his stenographer left his office last evening, Captain Blom said to her:

"If I should go to the bottom, my papers and everything are in the safe."

Doctors declare the assault must have taken place between 1 and 3 o'clock this morning, as he would have bled to death if it had been earlier.

Captain Blom was still unconscious at noon and the doctors were not hopeful for his recovery.

KNIGHT PROMISES TO OPEN BARREL

the large bonus of the Provo mining magnate is that his son, J. William Knight, defeated two years ago for governor, is to be named as the Democratic candidate for the Congress of the United States in the lower House and that Jesse, himself, is to be the Democratic candidate for the United States Senate. In the face of this condition, Judge King has announced that he will be in politics this fall, though he has not stated for which office he will run. It is believed, however, that his name will be put forward for the United States Senate, to run against the Republican nominee.

As the man endorsed by the Democratic convention means his selection for the United States Senate by the state legislature, in the event that the Democrats win this fall and have a Democratic legislative body, Mr. Knight has agreed to take the chance. In case the Democrats are successful this fall, the choice of the state convention pledges the men elected to vote for him for the Senate.

In addition to J. William Knight and Judge W. H. King, no names have been mentioned for the congressional race, but the caucus of the Salt Lake county delegates will throw their choice for these offices to some man prominent in Democratic life.

Finances and Jesse Knight.

It has been learned that even before Provo was named for the seat of the state convention, the matter of finances and Jesse Knight entered prominently into the race, and for this reason the place for the meeting of the delegates was set for Provo, the home of the mining magnate. From his home town, it is believed that Mr. Knight will be able to dictate the most important planks in the platform and will also be able to force his choices for endorsement by the convention for Congress.

Defeat of the party in the last series of campaigns has driven many from the party to other ranks and with the generous campaign fund and a show of fight, they are expected to return to the fold. For this purpose the proposition—a cold, business matter—was put up to "Uncle Jesse" with the result that the promise has been made and the prohibition plank will almost certainly be inserted in the "For Sale" platform, with Jesse Knight for the United States Senate and J. William Knight for the lower House of Congress.

With your knowledge of what things should cost, you'll often find something advertised under the "For Sale" classification that will make you wonder "what's wrong with it?" And usually all that's wrong with it is that the owner has ceased to NEED IT!
